APPLICATION OF WINDELS MARX LANE & MITTENDORF, LLP,
FOR AN INTERIM AWARD OF COMPENSATION AND
REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES FOR THE PERIOD
JUNE 1, 2010 THROUGH SEPTEMBER 30, 2010

TO: HONORABLE JAMES M. PECK, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP (“Windels Marx” or “Applicant”), special counsel to Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., (“LBHI”) and its affiliated debtors in the above referenced chapter 11 cases, (collectively referred to as “Lehman” or the “Debtors”), makes this Application pursuant to sections 330(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 adopted on January 30, 1996 (the “UST Guidelines”), General Order M-151, Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in the Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases (the “Local Guidelines”), and the Third Amended Order Pursuant to Sections 105(a) and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a) Establishing Procedures for Interim Monthly Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals (the “Interim Compensation Order”), for an allowance and approval of compensation for professional services rendered to the Debtors (the “Application”) in the amount of $336,613.72 incurred during the period June 1, 2010 through September 30, 2010 (the “Period”), reimbursement of disbursements incurred during the Period in the amount of $8,854.48, and release of holdbacks in the amount of $67,322.75 for a total award of compensation and reimbursement of disbursements of $345,468.20.

BACKGROUND

1. On September 15, 2008 and periodically thereafter (the “Commencement Date”), LBHI and certain of its subsidiaries filed voluntary cases under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors’ chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Bankruptcy Rules. The Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. On September 17, 2008, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed a statutory committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Creditors Committee”).

3. On September 19, 2008, a proceeding was commenced under the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 (“SIPA”) with respect to Lehman Brothers Inc., (“LBI”). A trustee appointed under SIPA is administering LBI’s estate. On January 19, 2009, the U.S.

Trustee appointed an examiner (the “Examiner”) and on January 20, 2009, the Court approved the U.S. Trustee’s appointment of the Examiner.

Jurisdiction and Venue

4. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Relief Requested

5. Pursuant to this Application, Windels Marx hereby seeks allowance of the following: (a) compensation for professional services rendered during the Period in the aggregate amount of $336,613.72; and (b) reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with such services in the aggregate amount of $8,854.48.

6. During the Period, Windels Marx attorneys and paraprofessionals expended a total of 887.55 hours for which compensation is requested.

7. Prefixed to this Application is the cover sheet required by the UST Guidelines, which includes a schedule setting forth the names of all Windels Marx professionals and paraprofessionals who have performed services for which compensation is sought, the person’s position in the firm, and the year each attorney was first admitted to practice law. In addition, the schedule sets forth for each person (a) the hourly rate(s) during the Period, (b) the total hours billed for which compensation is sought, and (c) the total compensation for such hours.

Windels Marx’s Retention

8. Windels Marx is a full service law firm with a broad-based general legal practice centering on corporate, banking, litigation, real estate and other major business practice areas. The Debtors originally retained Windels Marx in 1993 to provide ongoing advice to the company in connection with various real estate transactions. Windels Marx has continued to provide these services to the Debtors up to and through the Commencement Date.

9. On October 13, 2008, the Debtors' filed a motion (the "Ordinary Course Professional Motion") seeking authorization pursuant to sections 105(a), 327, 328 and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, to retain, nunc pro tunc to the Commencement Date, professionals utilized in the ordinary course of business (the "Ordinary Course Professionals") without the submission of separate retention applications and the issuance of separate retention orders for each individual professional. Windels Marx was originally designated as an Ordinary Course Professional by Order dated November 5, 2008 (the "Ordinary Course Professional Order").

10. On August 14, 2009, the Debtors filed their Application Pursuant to Sections 327(e) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 2014 of the Bankruptcy Rules for Authorization to Employ Windels Marx as Special Counsel to the Debtors, nunc pro tunc to the Engagement Date² (the "Retention Application") due to the existence of a $1 million annual compensation cap for Ordinary Course Professionals that Windels Marx was in danger of exceeding.

11. On August 25, 2009, the Court entered the Order Pursuant to Sections 327(e) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code Authorizing the Employment and Retention of Windels Marx as Special Counsel to the Debtors, nunc pro tunc to the Engagement Date (the "Retention Order"), a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A".

12. On June 25, 2009, the Court entered the Interim Compensation Order, which superseded the second amended order dated March 13, 2009 in its entirety. Pursuant to the

² The Engagement Date is a defined term incorporated herein by reference to the Application of the Debtors Pursuant to sections 327(e) and 328 (a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 2014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for Authorization to Employ and Retain Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP, as Special Counsel to the Debtors, Nunc Pro Tunc to the Engagement Date, filed on August 14, 2009.

Interim Compensation Order, the Court established procedures for the Debtors' payment of interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses of professionals retained in these chapter 11 cases.

Services Rendered By Windels Marx
During The Interim Period

This Application is made by Windels Marx for an allowance of fair and reasonable compensation for professional services rendered by it on behalf of the Debtors during the Period, consistent with the results achieved, the time, labor and expertise brought to bear on the problems presented and other related factors and for reimbursement of actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses incurred in the rendition of such professional services during the Period. The amounts sought for compensation for professional services are at the hourly rates customarily charged by Windels Marx for legal services rendered by the respective professional or paraprofessional and are reasonable and customary for firms of Windels Marx's size and expertise in the New York City and Metropolitan areas.

14. For the convenience of this Court, and in accordance with the UST Guidelines, a summary of the total hours worked during the Period by each professional and paraprofessional for whose services compensation is being sought, together with a recitation of the hourly billing rate for each person and the total compensation sought for each person's services in each individual matter, is annexed hereto as Exhibit "B".

15. Windels Marx regularly maintains records of time expended in the rendition of all professional services and records of costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Debtors. These records were made substantially concurrent with the rendition of the professional services. All such records are available for inspection. The total amount of compensation for legal services rendered, reimbursement of disbursements and fees subject to a holdback totals $345,468.20.

Standards For Allowance Of Compensation

38. Windels Marx submits that for the reasons set forth in detail above, the professional services rendered by Windels Marx on behalf of the Debtors during the Period were necessary and reasonable.

39. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes compensation for reimbursement of expenses of professionals in cases arising under the Bankruptcy Code and provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

(a)(1) After notice to the parties in interest and the United States Trustee and a hearing, and subject to sections 326, 328 and 329, the court may award to... a professional person employed under section 327 or 1103 –

(A) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by...professional person, or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and

³ This amount reflects fees paid in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order coupled with fees that were subject to a holdback.

(B) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.

(2) The court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the United States Trustee, the United States Trustee for the District or Region, the trustee for the estate, or any other party in interest, award compensation that is less than the amount of compensation that is requested.

(3) In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to...professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

(A) the time spent on such services;

(B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

(F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

(4)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the court shall not allow compensation for --

(i) unnecessary duplication of services; or

(ii) services that were not --

(I) reasonably likely to benefit the Debtors' estate;

or

(II) necessary to the administration of the case.

11 U.S.C. §330(a).

40. In considering an application for compensation made by a professional, the initial inquiry is whether the services for which compensation are sought were necessary. See, e.g., In re Keene Corp., 205 B.R. 690, 696 (S.D.N.Y. 1997); In re Harshbarger, 205 B.R. 109 (S.D. Ohio 1996); In re Lederman Enterprises, Inc., 997 F.2d 1321 (10th Cir. 1993); In re International Coins & Currency, Inc., 22 B.R. 127 (D. Vt. 1982). The term “necessary services” has been interpreted by the majority of courts, including this Court, to signify services that resulted in a benefit to the estate. In re Lederman Enterprises, Inc., 997 F.2d 1321, 1323 (10th Cir. 1993); In re Keene Corp., 205 B.R. at 696; In re Engel, 190 B.R. 206, 209 (Bankr. D.N.Y. 1995). Services “reasonably likely to benefit the Debtors' estate, are compensable.” Section 330(a)(4)(A); In re JLM, Inc., 210 B.R. 19 (BAP 2d Cir. 1997); see also In re Keene Corp., 205 B.R. at 696, quoting 3 Collier on Bankruptcy, ¶330.03[3], at 330-26 (the services at issue must at least provide the estate with “an opportunity commensurate with cost” to be compensable).

41. In calculating whether the fees sought are reasonable, Courts determine the lodestar amount. See, Pennsylvania v. Delaware Valley Citizen's Council For Clean Air, 483 U.S. 711, at 725-26 (1987); In re United States Football League v. National Football League, 887 F. 2d 408, 413 (2d Cir. 1989), cert. denied 493 U.S. 1071 (1990); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 133 B.R. 13, 22 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991) (“It is now well settled that the ‘lodestar’ method of fee calculation . . . is the method to be used to determine a ‘reasonable’ attorney fee in all the federal courts, including the bankruptcy courts.”); In the Matter of Cena's Fine Furniture, Inc., 109 B.R. 575, 581 (E.D.N.Y. 1990). The lodestar amount represents “the number of hours reasonably worked on a case multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate.” Wells v. Bowen, 855 F.2d 37, 43 (2d Cir. 1988).

42. In determining the proper allowance of compensation for professionals, a court generally looks to the (a) time and labor required, (b) novelty and difficulty of questions involved, (c) requisite skills, (d) customary fee, (e) whether fee is fixed or contingent, (f) results obtained, (g) nature and length of professional relationship, (h) awards in similar cases, and (i) professional standing, ability and expertise of the law firm. See, e.g., In the Matter of Cena's Fine Furniture, Inc., 109 B.R. 575, 580-581 (E.D.N.Y. 1990); In re Wonder Corp. of America, 82 B.R. 186, 191 (D. Conn. 1988).

(a) Time and Labor Required.

The time and labor required to represent the Debtors during the Period has been significant. The matters handled by Windels Marx and the efforts undertaken by Windels Marx in the representation of the Debtors are fully set forth above and in the time entries annexed hereto.

(b) Skills Requisite to Perform Legal Services,
Experience, Reputation and Ability of Windels Marx.

Windels Marx believes that its expertise in the areas of real estate and transactional analysis has substantially contributed to results achieved.

(c) The Customary Fee.

Windels Marx submits that the fee it seeks is not unusual given the size and complexity of Debtors' business, the benefits conferred on the Debtors' estates, the time expended and is commensurate with what other attorneys of comparable experience and expertise charge on a regular basis.

(d) Whether Fee is Fixed or Contingent.

Pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, all fees sought by professionals employed under section 327 of the Code are contingent upon approval by the Court.

(e) Results Obtained.

Windels Marx consistently achieves results that the Debtors find favorable and continue to work toward that end.

(f) Nature and Length of Professional Relationship.

Windels Marx has counseled, advised and represented the Debtors from their retention in 1993 through the current date.

(g) Awards in Similar Cases.

Comparable firms have been awarded fees in numerous chapter 11 cases under the Bankruptcy Code by this and other bankruptcy courts predicated upon the same criteria and resulting in awards comparable to that now requested.

(h) Professional Standing, Ability and Expertise of Windels Marx Attorneys.

A) James J. Thomas - James J. Thomas is a Partner at Windels Marx and is a member of the Firm's Real Estate Practice Group. Mr. Thomas' practice focuses on capital markets financing and equity investments.

B) Robert A. Rossi - Robert A. Rossi is a Partner at Windels Marx and is a member of several Practice Groups, including Real Estate; Corporate & Securities; Financial Transactions and International. Mr. Rossi focuses on joint ventures, real estate transactions and mergers and acquisitions. Mr. Rossi regularly represents both institutional clients and closely held entities in real estate, corporate and securities transactions.

43. As Windels Marx's time records reflect, where practicable, associate attorneys were used in the representation of the Debtors. Those associate attorneys had varying levels of experience and were assigned to handle specific tasks on the basis of that experience.

Statements of Windels Marx Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a)

44. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, Windels Marx has submitted its Monthly Statements to (i) the Debtors, (ii) counsel to the Debtors, Weil, Gotshal & Manges, LLP, (iii) counsel to the official committee of unsecured creditors (the “Committee”), Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP, (iv) the U.S. Trustee, and (v) Chairperson of the Fee Committee (as defined in the Order Appointing a Fee Committee and Approving a Fee Application Protocol, dated May 26, 2009), Feinberg Rozen, LLP, with respect to the Period during the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases, as follows: (a) from June 1, 2010 through June 30, 2010 – fees of $116,672.93 and expenses of $1,173.54; (b) from July 1, 2010 through July 31, 2010 – fees of $113,914.00 and expenses of $2,200.10; (c) from August 1, 2010 through August 31, 2010 – fees of $47,499.80 and expenses of $4,304.55; and (d) from September 1, 2010 through September 30, 2010 – fees of $58,527.00 and expenses of $1,176.29.
